When I arrived at this location, I parked in a stall but was immediately directed in a friendly manner to enter the service lane to obtain an oil change. Joelene greeted me cheerfully, inquiring what service I needed. She described the types of oil changes available and had me update my contact information on a tablet. She said I could wait either in the lobby or on the outdoor benches. A time frame for the service was not mentioned. However, there were no other vehicles waiting and only one van that was almost done.
