I drove up and all of the stalls were filled. I got behind a car. One of the greeters approach me and shared a friendly greeting. He asked how I could be assisted. I shared that I wanted an oil change and he stated that they had three cars in front of me. He informed me that it would be approximately one hour before that could get to my vehicle and I agreed. He checked the sticker on my windshield and asked if I wanted the standard oil at $45. I stated that I did. He asked me to leave the key in my car and gestured to the waiting lobby for me.
